My dear Sir

Pray accept of a Somersetshire Ham of venison. I am informed that it was killed on the 9th Inst. Your cook will know best when and what to do with it.

If the weather would let us, we should be quite pleasant here now, as we may be said to be all to rights. When you and Mr.

Hibbert did us the favour to call, we were all in misery & confusion

My wife & daughters beg to send their best compliments to Mr Hibbert. I am

My dear Sir,
Yours very sincerely
J. Payne Collier

John Hibbert Esq.
